Winter Quarter:

Registration Procedure Changed

Pre-registration procedures for winter quarter have been changed, Fr. Frank Costello, S.J., academic vice president, said. The following is an outline of the steps that returning students must take to register.

1. Obtain class schedule from registrar's office, second floor Pigott Bldg.
2. See adviser and work out class schedule on form provided in schedule.
3. All male students must present class schedule to ROTC for approval.
4. Present approved class schedule to registrar's office to obtain registration appointment number before Dec. 7.

Class schedules will be available at the registrar's office by Nov. 17.

Registration for seniors, juniors and sophomores will be from 8:30 to 10:45 a.m. and from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Jan. 3. Freshmen and new students will register from 8:30 to 10:45 a.m. on Jan. 4.

Registration will run on an appointment schedule as in fall quarter. Students who do not return their class schedule to the registrar's office by Dec. 7 will not receive an appointment time. Upper-classmen not receiving appointment times must wait and register at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 3. Freshmen will have to wait until 10:45 a.m., Jan. 4.

THE REASON all male students, including veterans, 4-F exemptees and students having completed two years of ROTC, must have their class schedules signed by the ROTC is that the department wants a list of exemptees.

Students will receive their registration appointment priority on a first come first serve basis. The official form in the class schedule must be signed by an adviser before the registrar will issue a registration appointment.

Students must present their signed adviser slip at registration.

Berlin Film Set For November 19

The all-color film, "Berlin—The Island City," will be shown on campus at 8 p.m., Nov. 19 in Pigott Auditorium, under the auspices of the ASSU Cultural committee.

Arthur Wilson, nationally-known photographer, will appear in person to narrate the film. He filmed the 1½-hour documentary this summer in the middle of the crisis area. At one time he was picked up by East German police for filming long lines of women waiting to buy food, but was released 3½ hours later.

Visits with families in both East and West Berlin, illuminating shots of the differences in May Day celebrations in both sectors, and other informative shots of the trouble spot are shown.

Dec. 16-17 Retreat Victim of Vacation

The retreat scheduled for Dec. 16-17 has been cancelled, according to Fr. Louis Sauvain, S.J., student chaplain. The cancellation is due to an early Christmas vacation beginning Dec. 16.

FR. EDWARD MORTON, S.J., will give a retreat for men on Dec. 9-10.

The mixed retreat scheduled for Nov. 25-26 will be cancelled within the week if more students do not sign up.

Fr. Fitterer to Address Honor Students at Tea

Fr. John A. Fitterer, S.J., dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, will be the featured speaker at the annual Scholarship Tea from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday, in the Chieftain lounge.

Over 400 students and faculty members have been invited to the tea which is co-sponsored by Silver Scroll and Alpha Sigma Nu, upperclass honoraries.

The reception line will include: The Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., Fr. Robert Rebhahn, S.J., dean of students; Miss Agnes Reilly, dean of women; Dr. J. Robert Larson, Alpha Sigma Nu moderator, and Dr. Anita Yourgich, Silver Scroll moderator.

Ginger Ruby, Silver Scroll president, emphasized the fact that all students who are eligible to attend and who have not yet received invitations, should inquire at the registrar's office.

Charity, Humility Needed To Read Good Literature

"It is hard to conceive of any aberration that has not been the subject of great literature," said Father Harold C. Gardiner, S.J., in a lecture Wednesday night in Pigott Auditorium.

"Personality Development Through Reading" was the subject of the address sponsored by the S.U. Guild. Fr. Gardiner, literary editor of the magazine, America, stressed the development of humility and charity in the human, not supernatural sense.

Humility is necessary in reading good literature to prevent the reader from allowing preconceptions to cloud his view of the author's intention. The reader must be willing to be taught by the author's point of view.

Charity enters into reading when the reader learns, through appreciation of the work, the capabilities of human nature and becomes able to judge his fellow human beings with a vision less distorted by ignorance and prejudice.

Defense Plan:

Evacuation Safest Procedure

By LINDA MADDEN

The best protection for S.U. students in the event of a nuclear attack would be evacuation, said Edward M. English, assistant director of the Seattle King County Civil Defense.

English spoke Tuesday to a group of S.U. students interested in gathering information on positive C.D. steps that could be taken on the S.U. campus.

He said that authorities figured that a bomb dropped at 3rd and Seneca would put S.U. in the total destruction area, which is about eight miles in diameter, figuring a 20 megaton bomb.

THE THEORY behind evacuation, he said, is to get out of the blast or total destruction area and farther away from the fallout area. In normal circumstances this would be about 13 miles.

EDWARD ENGLISH

Evacuation could only be executed if there were enough warning before the blast. Forty-five minutes or more would be enough time to evacuate.

In the event of an attack without sufficient warning, a shelter offers protection from fallout and partial protection from blast effects depending on the strength and location of the shelter.

THE DANGER from fallout effects can be reduced greatly by any form of shelter. During the first 48 hours when danger

Deadline For Aegis Pictures Extended

Aegis picture deadlines have been extended to Tuesday, Kathy Kleffner, yearbook editor, said. Pictures will be taken on Monday and Tuesday from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Picture times today are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This time is set up for off-campus students and cadet teachers.

Proofs must be returned to the third floor L.A. Bldg. by 2 p.m. Thursday.

BALMY BALLET DANCERS execute a more difficult passage, not to mention executing the dance. The graceless gazelles may not be ready for Degas but they are ready for the Variety show at 8 p.m. in Pigott Auditorium tonight. Dancers (minus their fluffy skirts) are from left: Tommy (Shotgun) Shaules, Rudy D'Amico and Ernie Dunston.

Inaccurate Primary Listing Delays Homecoming Release

The Homecoming court nominations are not announced in today's Spectator. The Homecoming committee planned to announce the results of Wednesday's election today but they were not able to compile an accurate list of nominees.

THE HOMECOMING voting schedule has now been changed. The list of queen and princess nominations will be published in next Friday's Spectator and the semi-final voting will be Tuesday, Nov. 21.

The list of 80 girls from Wednesday's election will be narrowed to 20, five from each class, in the election November 21.

VOTING WILL be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Chieftain and L.A. Bldg. Students must present their ASSU cards when voting.

Uncle Sam Needs Holiday Helpers

Uncle Sam might want you! Applying for jobs with the Seattle Post Office for the Christmas holidays will open Monday and run through Friday, Don Willis, S.U. alumni director, said.

S.U. students should apply from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Terminal Annex at 3rd S. and Lander.

Pay for daytime jobs is $1.96 per hour and there is a 10 per cent increase for night work, Willis said.

The qualifications are: applicants must be over 18 years old, U.S. citizens, in good health and live within the Seattle city limits.

Speech Team to Travel To W.S.U. Tournament

Jack Kerry and Jerry Baydo, members of the S.U. speech team, will leave today for the W.S.U. invitational debate tournament tomorrow in Pullman.

Four S.U. debate teams were entered in last weekend's Whitworth College tournament, but only one team was able to reach Spokane in time to compete. One of the team's cars broke down en route.

"Aurora Borealis" Scheduled Dec. 7

"Aurora Borealis" will be the theme of the annual Sadie Hawkins tolo scheduled for Dec. 7. The dance, sponsored by Silver Scroll, upperclass women's honorary, will be at the Shorewood Country Club on Mercer Island.

Co-chairmen Kathy Kelly and Sharon Missiaen said that programs will go on sale for $2.50 after Thanksgiving vacation. The dance will be semi-formal and non-corsage. Music for dancing will be provided by Archie Kyle's eight-piece orchestra.

Committee chairmen are: Kay Neff and Margaret Raney, decorations; Jan Greenfield and Ann MacQuarrie, programs; and Jeanne Hawksford, chaperones.

No Spectator Wednesday

The Spectator will not publish Wednesday because the annual school retreat was originally scheduled for next week.

The paper would not be published on a retreat day. Earlier national advertising arrangements could not be changed. Hence, no paper.

The next issue will be Nov. 17.

According to budget figures, the paper may have to drop one or two more issues. Sufficient funds for a 57-issue schedule were not available from the student body activity allotment.

Heads Up or Tails Down?

"The sky is falling! The sky is falling!" yelled Chicken Little, "We'll all be killed!" The sky wasn't really falling, but the characters in the story were so convinced that it was that they lost their heads and ended up being devoured by the real danger, the fox.

THE "SKY IS FALLING" attitude is the frame of mind, along with its specter brother, "so what, it hasn't happened yet," that is paralyzing the common sense of the American public.

Both of these, unreasoning defeatism and ostrich-like complacency, are dangerous. College students should be first to see why. Both are the result of a lack of understanding, a lack of reasoning.

DEFEATISM STEMS from the mistaken idea that mankind is doomed in the case of nuclear war. This simply is not true.

An all out nuclear war would certainly kill many people.

The destruction of life and property that would result is terrible to contemplate.

But knowledge of the situation leads to the reasonable conclusion that many will survive. Those who are prepared, those who are courageous, and those who are lucky, will survive.

IT IS FOOLISH and illogical to forfeit all chance of survival because of defeatism.

The current complacency is caused in part by the continuous series of crises that have blackened the headlines since the end of the Second World War. Korea, Vietnam, Quemoy, Berlin, Algeria, Congo, Cuba . . . these conflicts have so conditioned us that we can no longer be shocked or frightened into positive action. We ask only that disaster wait a few more days. When conflict first breaks out, we are jolted. Then, when a holocaust doesn't immediately follow, we sink back into our routine and breath a collective sigh of relief.

YET TENSION mounts on tension. Incident follows incident in a pattern far more ominous than those which preceded the other wars.

We can no longer afford to sit idly in centrally heated ivory towers, oblivious to the approaching danger, unprepared to face the future, and unconcerned about the fate of our civilization.

It is no longer a radical position to believe that there may be a nuclear attack on our country. It is a realistic position. We must prepare ourselves to meet the threat of war so that if and when it comes, we can meet it with positive action that will insure the survival of our way of life "for ourselves and for posterity."

S.U. Artist Displays Painting in Exhibition

By CHRISTEL BRELLOCHS

Pat Fetch, S.U. senior, majoring in art, has done the impossible, according to Mr. Nikolas J. Damascus, associate professor of art.

Pat's painting, "Rainy-Day Market," is on display in the 47th Annual Exhibition of Northwest Artists at the Seattle Art Museum, Volunteer Park. Mr. Damascus compares this feat to an S.U. student publishing a successful novel.

PAT'S WORK has also been exhibited in the Northwest Water Color Show, the Puget Sound Area Exhibition, and Bellevue Arts and Crafts Fair.

The artist finished her entry for the Bellevue fair 45 minutes before the deadline.

"I was framing the picture on the way to Bellevue, driving in nails at every red light," Pat said. "I was five minutes late . . . the last entry."

DESPITE THE rush, Pat's painting received honorable mention.

"I've always enjoyed painting," she remarked. "It's an exciting thing for me to do. I get ideas and want to put them on paper. I like to interpret—not produce something the camera can do."

Usually, Pat paints market scenes. However, last summer she did a series of sketches of Seattle and the Century 21 fairgrounds. Her roommates plan to exhibit the sketches at Marian Hall.

PAT'S FUTURE includes graduate work and teaching college art. She attributes her success to the inspiration of Mr. Damascus and the assistance of Fr. Hayden A. Vachon, S.J., head of S.U.'s art department, and Mr. Michael J. Smith, art instructor.

Letters to the Editor:

Prom May Be Dropped

Dear Editor:

The Spring Formal which is in May this year may not be sponsored by the junior class because of lack of funds, and, yet of greater importance, the unwillingness of the class members to work.

THE JUNIOR class sponsored a Spanish fiesta, Friday night, which was a "financial crash." The junior class took the lead Oct. 12, when it called its classmates together to discuss what they could do with their Nov. 3 date (23 members attended out of a class of 506.) The "masses" decided to shine a beaming light on mixers at S.U. They decided to have a Spanish fiesta with Spanish music, food, and decorations.

However, the hard work and self-sacrifice shown by the few who worked on this project was to no avail. Friday evening, few members of the class assisted in the decorating and fewer attended the function.

SOME PEOPLE in this class are working diligently in trying to move the location of the Spring Formal to a site unique and more enchanting. In the questionnaire last spring, the fact of having the prom moved to a new location was strongly supported.

We have started the ball rolling of having the prom on an ocean liner which possibly could be here for Century 21. But if the class cannot put forth a little effort to help with a mixer or even attend the function, how, may we ask, are they going to sponsor an event which will entail ten times more work and money?

Sincerely,
Jeff Pedersen, president, and Phil Rodgers,
vice president,
Junior Class

2 Records Tumbled At Intramural Lanes

Two records were erased from the books yesterday at Rainier Lanes. Dino Favro, bowling for the I.G.P.'s, smashed Dick O'Brien's season's series high by ten pins, with a 629. He had games of 207, 212, and 210.

In team results, the high-rolling Four Tees saw their undefeated string go down the gutter. They now stand at 22-2.

IN SECOND place, at 18-6, are the Checkmates. Larry Fulton and Ed Antonelli led the Checkmates in their split with the Four Tees. Fulton compiled a 569 series, while Antonelli came up with a 202 game.

The Holy Rollers and Trog-lodytes hold down third position, with 17-7 marks.

High game for the week went to league co-secretary Mark Hanses, who fired a 231. Fr. William Weller, S.J., shot a 227.

SERIES-WISE, Hanses came in with a 592; Fulton, 569; Bob Sundberg, 556, and Fr. Weller, 543.

Coed honors went to Mimi Burchard, with a 171 game and a series total of 441.

Kiwis, OMOC, Butchers Win

The running of Frank Gartland and the passing of Mick McDonald provided the Kiwis (4-1) with a 40-0 win over ROTC, yesterday at Broadway Field. In the first period, Gartland rambled 30 yards, and passed to Dan Leahy. McDonald flipped a TD toss to Bill Bourcault to give the Kiwis a 22-0 advantage.

In the second half, Gartland connected with Nick Murphy and Mike Gazarek for 12 points, and tacked on another six with a 15-yard carry.

League-leading OMOC (5-0), led off the second round of intramural football, Tuesday, by nosing out the Monarchs (2-3), 22-20.

The first half pitted the passing of OMOC quarterback Frank Michael against the running of Monarch Pat Connolly. Michael hit Mick Collins and John Miller to net 16 points. Connolly kept the Monarchs in the game with two touchdown romps for 14 points.

CONNOLLY tallied again in the second period, but OMOC came back, on the strength of John Waggett's 25-yard scoring run, to sew it up.

The Bellarmine Butchers (4-1) followed with a 6-2 margin over the Barflies (0-5). After Dick Cavaliere had been dropped in the end zone for a safety, the Butchers roared back. A Chuck Bahoskey-to-Frank Rusch completion climaxed a 70-yard drive.

S.U. Students Discussion Leaders At Northwest Sodality Conference

Seven S.U. students conducted discussion groups at the annual Northwestern Sodality Conference at Gonzaga last weekend. The student leaders are Dick Otto, John Crowley, Terry Murphy, Rose Marie Lyons, Dolores Reda, Larry Jesenko and Sal Trippy.

The students presented S.U.'s leadership program, its purpose and its organization, to delegates from eight other colleges.

S.U. WAS chosen to present the leadership plan because it is the first to be organized in the West. The plan will be adopted and imitated by the other schools present at the conference.

Colleges represented at the conference were: Gonzaga; Portland U.; St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing and St. Joseph's School of Nursing, Victoria, B. C.; Marylhurst, Portland; Sacred Heart School of Nursing, Spokane; Providence and Cabrini Schools of Nursing, Seattle.
